		Petitioner states the court is fully aware of the history of the parents' neglect and the child's need for a guardian. After giving the parents another chance to rectify the circumstances, the need to remove the child from their care remains desperate. The parents are unstable and habitual substance abusers. In May 2014 the parents violated a restraining order when the father and paternal grandfather moved back into the mother's home. Petitioner states she has guardianship of the mother's other child, Mysteya (appointed in San Bernardino County). Objection to Guardianship filed 11/24/14 by Curtis Ruby (father) states: Petitioner is a virtual stranger to the minor and it is in his best interest that he stays with his immediate family. Also objector alleges that the guardian abuses prescription medications. Court Investigator filed a report on 12/09/14.
